Maybe you don't know how you live in my dreams, my dreams something about your smile starts the butterflies inside me maybe you don't see the two of us like I do, I do but no one wants you more, than this dreamer standing right beside you whatever it takes

I'm taking it all the way
now it's all or nothing never gonna find me a better day never gonna love any other way baby my heart's saying now hoping that I waited for the right time praying for the words that'll make you mine baby I'm shaking
but my heart's saying now when I think of you my heart takes a tumble, tumble if I could have one wish the walls around your heart would crumble I've waited for so long until the perfect moment came along don't let me be invisible tell me girl is it me you really want?

tell me now, my baby

i need to know, you drive me crazy all night, i think about you now i'm telling you, telling you the way that i feel cuz i know it's for real.

whatever it takes, whatever it takes

never find me a better day
never love any other way baby my heart's saying now, heart's saying now
baby when my heart's saying now praying for the words that'll make you mine, ohhhhh
