(Alone, alone, alone, alone)

You're fighting for your very life
It's cold outside
You're looking for an answer
You took a wrong turn and you lost your way

When it rains, it pours
And you don't wanna fight no more
Take a look out in the distance
I'll be the light that you've been missing

(Chorus)

I don't want you to think that you're here all alone
I know sometimes it can feel like you're out on your own
I'll be the rock that'll never break
Shoulder that you need to lean on
For you, I'm never too far away,
As long as I'm here,
You'll never be alone
Alone, alone, alone, alone
You'll never be alone
Alone, alone, alone, alone

You don't have to be afraid
Or be ashamed
Just be what God made you
Let the world know just who you are

You're invincible
So you don't have to hide no more
Take a look out in the distance
Go and see what you've been missing

(Repeat Chorus)

When you don't feel the love
Just know that you're good enough
You don't have to walk alone tonight, tonight.....

Alone, alone, alone, alone

I don't want you to think that you're here all alone
I know sometimes it can feel like you're out on your own
I'll be the rock that'll never break
The shoulder that you need to lean on
For you, I'm never too far away
As long as I'm here you'll never be alone
Alone, alone, alone, alone
You'll never be alone,
Alone, alone, alone, alone,
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone.
