Yeah, yeeeeeah

Sitting here waiting for tomorrow

All because of yesterday

I wish I had all the answers

For all the things you had to say

BRIDGE:

I wanna come and change your mind girl

No lies and no more games

CHORUS:

Never thought of missing you

Never thought I'd need you

Before you left tonight

Since I can't be reaching you

And since I won't be holding you

Will it be alright?

And how can you just say we're though after all this time

I'm standing here with open arms

The thought just crossed my mind

Where is your heart tonight?

Sitting in loneliness and sorrow

I only have myself to blame

Had a good girl and I lost her

I start to cry and feel ashamed

BRIDGE:

I wanna come and change your mind girl
No lies and no more games

CHORUS:

Never thought of missing you
Never thought I'd need you
Since I can't be reaching you
And since I won't be holding you
Will it be alright?
And how can you just say we're though after all this time
I'm standing here with open arms
The thought just crossed my mind
Where is your heart tonight?

I'll never understand what ever happened to us
What ever happened to us
(?Whenever I think of you the sun is shining above?)
Ooooh yeah
