I like staying up all night
I think it's my right to sleep until noon
I love watching scary movies

I could stay shopping all day
Getting my way, and trying on shoes
Don't tell me what I should be doing

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later
Just hanging out, having fun, and taking my time

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself
Can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager

I dread making my bed
I wish I could get out of cleaning my room
Cause I hate keeping my friends waiting Fast cars, playing it by heart, Googling stars, and surfing for tunes
Does any one here get what I'm saying?

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later
Just hanging out, having fun, and taking my time

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself
Can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager

(Spoken)[Jordan Pruitt]-Hello, this is Jordan
[Jordan Cole]-Hey what's up?
[Jordan Pruitt]-You'll never guess who called me yesterday
[Jordan Cole]-Who?
[Jordan Pruitt]-You know that guy that's taking me to homecoming?

[Jordan Cole]-Yeah
[Jordan Pruitt]-He was like "you took my breath away when I saw you"
[Jordan Cole]-Haha
[Jordan Pruitt]-He called me sweetie too
[Jordan Cole]-Aww
[Jordan Pruitt]-I don't know if I like him though

(Sung) I want more minutes on my cell phone
I wanna credit card of my own
I want the keys to the Mercedes-Benz (yeah)

I wanna wear what I wanna wear
I wanna curfew that I think is fair
I wanna chill at the mall with my friends (at the mall with my friends)

Does anyone here get what I'm saying?
Just hanging out havin' fun and taking my time
I can't help myself
Can't be no one else I'm just a teenager

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I like putting things off 'til later ('til later)
Just hanging out, having fun, and taking my time

Give me a break I'm just a teenager
I'm automatically attracted to danger
I can't help myself
Can't be no one else
I'm just a teenager

Give me a break I'm just a teenager!
