You got me
I know that you always have
Been there looking up over my sholder
And you'll be there when I get older
Cause I'm depending on you
And when I go wrong
It's ok

I'm not alone your there beside me
Confident cause I'm feelin you'd guide me
I couldn't do without you, no

Troubles with my guy, issues with my girls
You cover me with your love
So I know It's gonna be allright
I know it's gonna work out fine
There are sometimes when I'm running low
And I here your voice like the radio

Lifting me up
Back to a better place
Where love is unconditional

When the world fights back
When this train gets bit off track
Remember your words
"there's allways another way"
Where love is unconditional

You know me inside out
Know my good and bad but you still love me
So thank you for taking care of me
I know you always come through and
Even when I might fall down

I don't know just how but you allways pick me up
And I know you'll never remind me
What would I do without you through
Troubles with my guy, issues with my girls
You cover me with your love
So I know it's gonna be allright
I know it's gonna work out fine

There are sometimes when I'm running low
And I here your voice like the radio

Lifting me up
Back to a better place
Where love is unconditional

When the world fights back
When this train gets bit off track
Remember your words
"there's allways another way"
Where love is unconditional

And when I think I'm about to let go
There you are Cheering me on
And it aint even about what's ur set record
Cause u ask for nothing in return
It's just unconditional

Ya ye ya ye
Oooohhhh

There are sometimes when I'm running low
And I here your voice like the radio

Lifting me up
Back to a better place
Where love is unconditional

When the world fights back
When this train gets bit off track
Remember your words
"there's allways another way"
Where love is unconditional
