I watched you spill your guts in the ocean sewer.
I drank your solace like your sweet cool tears.
I breathe the air I
Fill the atmosphere I
Choke the air with weed
That grows and spreads disease
But I won't let it happen again.
No I won't let it happen again.
I am unstable fuel I
Am the cult that hates you
I am genocide that follows baseless nation pride I
Am the fire that feeds on
Blood, and corporate greed I
Am intolerance
And narrow minded ignorance.
But I wont let it happen agian.
No I wont let it happen again.
And so much pain is televised.
Cut down to inconsequential size.
When pain and fear become cliché'
It's easier to walk away.
