"The Machines Of B"

Visit "The Machines Of B" on MotoLyrics.com

When the machines have gone
You'll wonder where you've been
You cant outrun yourself
But you're alone again
An ordinary man
An ordinary girl
Somewhere along the way
We learned we cant change the world

But you'll wish that you had

And all the hollow things
Ride on a coloured sea
But only see themselves

In every other thing.
It is a lonely world
An ordinary place
When the machines have gone
You cannot fill their space

But you'll wish that you had

current number 1 on the German MP3 charts from the lbum "Passenger"
