I don't know where this road is going to lead me
But I'm hoping that with you I can make it through
I've had enough of this life to lead me...
Right up to the edge of the world I knew

I can't wait
Just to see another day
If it means it's one, one day
That I'm with you

Down this road
We'll look back at
All we've known
Find a life
I can grow old
Just passing through
In the world I knew

I'll be loving your light
Till it fades away
Tell the world I know
Cuz it will never change
If something feels so right
Just can't turn the page
There's too much to lose
We're just passing... through

Time won't stop
Wish that we could turn back the clock

I can't wait
Just to see another day
If it means it's one, one day
That I'm with you

Down this road
We'll look back at
All we've known
Find a life
I can grow old
Just passing through

In the world I knew
In the world I knew
In the world I knew
In the world I knew
