Verse 1: Sometimes I can almost hear it, those words on the tip of your tongue. So clear I'm sure you feel it. Finish what you hearts begun. What is it about love these days, that makes it so hard to say?

Chorus: If they're only words just say them. How much can they really mean? What good are deep emotions floating at the bottom of the sea? If they're only strings just play them. Dance around the room with me. What good are deep emotions floating at the bottom of the sea, bottom of the sea.

Verse 2: Somewhere there's a fire inside you. Needs air like you need me. If you want love to find you, open up your heart and scream. What is it about love these days, that make up your heart and scream. What is it about love these days, that makes it so hard to say?

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge: If you can't give me all you've got, than this love is probably not the answer to the question pouding in my dreams. I want to race across the waves, with a love that never fades. If you can't fly with me, I'll leave you at the bottom of the sea ... bottom of the sea.

(Repeat Chorus)

Bottom of the sea, bottom of the sea, yeah, yeah, bottom of the sea
