They say that I'll get better
It only takes a little time
One minute's like forever
Feels like I'm gonna lose my mind
If it's true that it's you who can mend what is broken
Than do what you do, let's not waste another moment

Time, I need you to fly
I hear you have wings
So take to the sky
Go as fast as you can
Make it all a blur
Til I can breathe
And it doesn't hurt
Please time fly

Tell me how could you surrender?
I thought that you were on my side
Maybe you don't remember
The way you used to rush on by
You were fast, you were wild,
So tell me why are you stalling?
Just like me you're on your knees,
And tonight we're both crawling

Time, I need you to fly
I hear you have wings
So take to the sky
Go as fast as you can
Make it all a blur
Til I can breathe
And it doesn't hurt
Please time fly

They say that you can heal
But you can't do anything just standing still Why are you standing still?

Time, I need you to fly
I hear you have wings
So tell me goodbye
Go as fast as you can

Make it all a blur
Til I can breathe
And it doesn't hurt
Please time fly
