A crack in my heart
Tears on my pillow
Tossin' and turning over you
You promised me the world
Turned it upside down
Shook it up and painted it blue
Now a little black cloud just follows me around
And there's no umbrella in sight
Turn the radio on but these breakup songs
Make it hard to move on
Boy it just ain't right

I got all the lonely
I got all the pain
I'm the only that shouldn't be sorry
So why am I left behind feeling this way
You got away easy
I got all the hurt
You got a lot of nerve
I got what you deserve

Lyin' awake
Missin' your kisses
That's what I get for holding on
Your holding on to her
You're starting over
Is that what you get for being wrong
Doesn't seem fair but I can't help care
That you don't even notice I'm gone
Tell me what do I do to get over you
Give me just one clue cause it didn't take you long

I got all the lonely
I got all the pain
I'm the only that shouldn't be sorry
So why am I left behind feeling this way
You got away easy
I got all the hurt
You got a lot of nerve
I got what you deserve
