Ah-oh, Ah-oh, Ah-oh [x2]

Listen up girls, pay attention
Take some notes on the things I'm about to mention
Sick and tired of the gossip and the drama
Heard it's coming straight from you

Just a young girl with ambition
Not looking for a fight or competition
There you go telling lies, spreading rumours
Of the things that just ain't true

This is rumour control
And I'm calling you out just to let you know
This is rumour control
Fed up with deception so won't you listen

No more secrets
Your lies are so obscene
Can't live my life with all these drama queens
All these whispers, dirty looks becoming more than I can take
I've come to realize I'm never gonna please you
I'll tighten up my crew so nothin breaks through
All the scandal and envy, betrayal
You girls are just to fake

This is rumour control
And I'm calling you out just to let you know
This is rumour control
Fed up with deception so won't you listen

This is rumour control

Ah-oh, Ah-oh, Ah-oh [x2]

Sweetie it's easy to see
Stepping all over my feet
You couldn't dance for your life

Trying to flow with my mike
Baby I'm keeping it tight
I know he's keeping it right
Here we roll with no doubt, no fear
Still clear so take notes
Writing for life, right till I die
Tossing them up, head to the sky
HATER!
Keep it real, we taking them higher
And bring in the fire
You can't deny her
The devil's a liar
And taking my closer
They talking but so what
Well here comes the beat up
Keeping my feet up
Who's staging the shots now?
She's got the heat now
We're kids to the street now
