Walkin' down that lonesome road
Set my soul on fire,
Lookin' back before I've left
Of passions and desires.
Can you help me anymore
To live my life more freely?
Instead of twisting like a rope
That's fallen after me.

Well, alright, the future paved the way
Still I could not follow,
Blindness caught and made me slay
Seven royal sorrows.
You could free my captive soul
From hesitation madness
For my life just ain't nowhere

When all I see is sadness.

Well, alright -- well, alright.
Find my blindness changes sight
Well, alright -- well, alright.
Stood before you in the night.
Alright.

Walkin' down that lonesome road
Fly with me on fire,
Lookin' for that windy place
Searchin' ever higher.
High upon a mountaintop
Fortress thick and bonded,
Thoughts about a brighter day
Together in the sun.

Repeat Verse II + Chorus.
