It's been so long
Since my baby has been here
And I'm so lonely
I remember when she was
My one and only
But I gess it doesn't matter anyway

When I think of
All the times I maded her cry
I hope she knows by now
That I was a little high
And I am sorry
But I gess it doesn't matter anyhow

If I have the time
I will try and find my mind
The years have quickly gone by
And there's no time
For a lonely guy

But if you see her
Tell her that I really care
And that I miss her
I remember all the nights
I used to kiss her
But I guess it doesn't matter anyhow

(Music - Guitar)

If I have the time
I will try and find my mind
The years have quickly gone by
And there's no time
For a lonely guy

But, if you see her
tell her that I really care
And that I miss her
I remember all the nights
I used to kiss her
But I guess it doesn't matter anyhow... now
I guess it doesn't matter anyhow.
