Welcome to my living room
It's not a womb, it's not a tomb
Not a June bride or the December groom
Tonight, in Hyannis
We'll be playing at a reasonable volume here
In my living room

I'm gonna play some songs for you
There are so many I'd like to do,
If I don't get to them all, I hope you'll forgive me

'Cause I'm sixty-two
And there's so many I'd like to do
Old and new
But I'll try to do all I can in the time they give me

Let's set aside all the fussing and fighting,
And make this night about songwriting
Sing and play some favorite tunes...
