Say you love me, then you leave me
Can't keep waiting, can't you see this
Fall asleep when you are in my dreams

Say your name its in my head
The stars are woken from their beds
I call to them and wish upon the light

Please don't move, don't let me go, its
Not the last scene of the show
Your eyes have faded
I'm in pieces
I can't cope without your kisses
Without your kisses
Without your kisses

Tears are splashing in the puddles
Hard to see that we're not lovers
Hold you in my thoughts and in my eyes

Say goodnight and flick the switch
My head goes black and I feel sick
You've gone and left me standing here all alone

Please don't move, dont let me go, it's
Not the last scene of the show
Your eyes have faded
I'm in pieces
I can't cope without your kisses
Without your kisses
Without your kisses
