Well, I saw me a Christian man with a cigarette in his hand,
He was smoking in front of children, acting bad,
He didn't care how it appeared,
He didn't show no godly fear,
His witness could have been more than it had.

Well, I saw two brothers go to a sexy movie show,
Laughing as they passed with their friends,
"Entertainment" - I don't care,
Saints don't belong in there,
I'm sick and tired,
Somehow it's got to end.

I'm telling you something's wrong when the holiness don't belong in living day to day 'cause it ain't "fun",
I wanna see me a godly man who's not a afraid to stand for what looks right,
I wanna see me some...
A little bit more conviction.

Two sisters scantily dressed, leaving nothing left to guess,
They go to a dancing club and drink some beer,
While the parents watch TV the kids play in the streets,
What happened to the bible and some prayer?

I'm telling you something's wrong when holiness don't belong in living day to day 'cause it ain't "fun",
I wanna see me a godly man who's not a afraid to stand for what looks right,
I wanna see me some...
A little bit more conviction.
Little bit more...

Conviction,
Conviction,
A little bit more conviction,
We need conviction,
A little bit more conviction,
A little bit more conviction.

A little bit more.

I'm telling you something's wrong when holiness don't belong in living day to day 'cause it ain't "fun", I've got to see me a godly man who's not a afraid to stand for what looks right,
I wanna see me some...
A little bit more conviction,
Little bit more...

Little bit more conviction,
Little bit more conviction,
Little bit more conviction,
(fade)
