A couple of young men came to my door today
While I was frying eggs in my kitchen
They looked so sincere with there white shirts and ties
As they tried to sell my there religion
We talked for a while
As my eggs got cold
About what there faith believed
And they said they were convinced
By what they'd been taught
That God is an exalted man like you or me
Well though the books reveal the spirit
Their hearts refused to hear it
They proceed to tell me he's got hair
Why in Daniel God's finger wrote on the wall
And his watchful eye is mentioned everywhere
I said take heed to your scriptures
Until you understand completely these verses your pickin'Â'
The Psalms said he'd protect us with his feathers and his wings
But that don't mean God's a great big chicken

Well don't you see
You have missed
Just who Jesus Christ says that He is

Well He's the Lord, Jehovah
He's the I am like He said
And He proved his divinity when He rose up from the dead
He's Messiah, Emmanuel
And if that don't pass the test
The book of John says He's the word of God come in
the flesh
Well He's the author of salvation
And He leaves no room to guess
He's the Alpha, Omega
Beginning and end
He's the first and he's the last
And if you're still confused
With no words left to waste
He said that He was GOD, GOD, GOD

Now I calmly rest my case

I went up to the airport
Took a ride to LAX
I was flying out to Dallas
To see my buddy Tex
I went up the escalator
My mind at total rest
When suddenly this guy pins a flower to my chest
I asked are you a Christian
He said "Oh yes and more
But I believe there's many ways of truth we can explore"
I said hold on a minute
I have to interrupt
If Jesus ain't the only way
This teaching is corrupt
He said now we believe
And teach that when you die
You come back in the form
Of a cow or bird or fly
So if you kill a animal
What actually you're seeing
Is a murder equal to that of a human being
Well as anyone can see
There Christian claims
Are totally without a doubt phony
You can't even go out and eat a Big Mac
Cause you might be munching on your Uncle Tony

I said
Don't you see
You have missed
Just who Jesus Christ says He is

Well He's the Lord, Jehovah
He's the I am like He said
And He proved his divinity when He rose up from the
dead
He's Messiah, Emmanuel
And if that don't pass the test
The book of John says He's the word of God come in
the flesh
Well He's the author of salvation
So He leaves no room to guess
He's the Alpha, Omega
Beginning and end
He's the first and He's the last
And if you're still confused
Just so no one will miss
He told us He was GOD

He proved that He was GOD
He taught us He was GOD, GOD, GOD
And that's just the way it is
