Give up your lies
And your false colored eyes
You're buried alive
Under your mind

I don't care who you have left behind
I don't care who you have compromised

Give up your lies

The things you despise
Have you hypnotized
Give up your disguise
And the places you hide

I don't care who you have compromised
I don't care who you have left behind

Give up your lies

In a needed answer
And my hero by Myself
Myself
If you can surrender
You will only hurt yourself
Yourself
Yourself
