Come back alive I wanna hold you
Come back alive I wanna hold you

I can see you don't know where you should be
Everything will be alright
Just wait and see

You're not the things that you have done
You're far beyond places you're still running from

I can see you don't know where you should be
Everything will be alright
Just wait and see

Don't trade this game for ???
Mistakes that you've made aren't who you are

I can tell you may be home where you fell (?)
...out of hell

I can see you don't know where you should be
Everything will be alright
Just wait and see
Just wait and see
