Rita ...

I thought I could save her but she was sinking too fast
We danced to Duke Ellington
Like neither of us had a past
I never knew where she came from
And how I never even asked

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Were you happy being mine

When the moon paying through the sky

In a world passing us by

I could see the fire in your eyes

Rita needed love

But she had no love to give

And even though she was full of guilt

She was easy to forgive

We danced to Duke Ellington in the bottom of a cup

And ... the only way you can

By completely gibing up

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Rita

Were you happy all the time

Were you happy being mine

When the moon paying through the sky

In a world passing us by

I could see the fire in your eyes

When the moon hits the sun

We will never ever become him back

When the moon hits the sun

We will never ever become him back
