I'm in recovery
My daddy beat his love into me
Now I don't care about sticks or stones
The name he called me broke my bones

Put my daddy on Prozac
I don't think I want him back
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous

Put my daddy on Prozac
I don't think I want him back
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous

I was raised in a family
They look like the enemy to me
And when you're raised in captivity don't you know you never get free

Put my daddy on Prozac
I don't think I want him back
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous

Put my daddy on Prozac
I don't think I want him back
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous
Make me feel dangerous
