

Josh Abbott Band

"Small Town Family Dream"

Visit "Small Town Family Dream" on MotoLyrics.com

Daddy was a farmer, like his Daddy was before
It only seemed fitting, I walk through the same door
I met my wife in high school, she was the prettiest I'd ever seen
I'm not sure why she chose me, but she'll always be my homecoming queen

I got you to forever hold; I'm not letting go
I feel like I'm right where I need to be
I thank the Lord everyday, if I get the chance to pray
For all these blessings, He's given me
Like living with you, in our small town family dream

Our oldest boy's like his old man; he wants to run the family farm
Youngest child is a rebel soul, got a hell of an arm
I'm so proud of both, I'm such a lucky man
I don't have to have a lot, to be thankful of where I am.

I got you to forever hold; I'm not letting go
I feel like I'm right where I need to be
I thank the Lord everyday, if I get the chance to pray
For all these blessings, He's given me
Like living with you, in our small town family dream

And we're having a girl, named after her Grandma
Jean
It looks like a new generation of farmers, and a
homecoming queen

I got you to forever hold; I'm not letting go
I feel like I'm right where I need to be
I thank the Lord everyday, if I get the chance to pray
For all these blessings, He's given me
Like living with you, in our small town family dream

I wouldn't change a thing,
About living with you, in our small town family dream.

