Chained could I run
would I fade away
Who knows what I do
when i'm still awake
The key would I lose
Should I choose such fate
Its wrong
Would i give my breath away

Born so free of heart
to amplify the ring
To feel becomes
The only thing thats real

Wait till you get what you want what you want
The only thing thats real

Starts like living and its carried along
The only thing thats real

Serenade everything
Who knows what i do
When i'm still awake
The key would i lose
Should i choose such fate
Its wrong
Would i give my breath away

Born so free of heart
to amplify the ring
To feel becomes
The only thing thats real

Chorus
