I want you
To know that I
Forgive you
Please don't cry
Someday
We'll have it all
A long way
So far to fall

You wait to long and now
she's leaving
The scent remains
I feel I'm gone
I stop breathing
I feel it in my veins
You wait to long and now
she's leaving

The scent remains
I feel I'm gone
I stop breathing
The scent remains

I need you
To know that I'll Protect you
When you can't fight
This bad blood
Won't hurt you again
Erasing
The walls that we build

Chorus

Chorus

The scent remains
