The train i got on did me in someone's pride blew our lives away now i'm crawling from the wreck to see you again i'd give it all i'll give you my
pain

the day you get even the day you won't escape the feeling the perfect ploy to believe in little trainwreck
come into you

no way to get out
i think of the name i gave to you don't recognize you now pages torn from a book blew our lives away take what you gave to me i'm leaving on the train

take what you gave to me
and let it blow away

Chorus

caught up
wake up, wake up
caught up
wake up, wake up
caught up, caught up
wake up
its the same shit

Chorus
