I saw a friend today
She talked about how she's gonna kill herself on Sunday
She said nobody really ever loved her anyway
And I don't know if what I said was okay
That she should make it quick and clean
And not make a big scene
Oh yeah
Oh yeah

And I saw my ex today
She talked about she's gonna write some fucking screenplay
She said her boyfriend's got a lot of money and he's gonna pay
We'll I don't know if what I said was okay
That all she ever did was whine
And by the way I'm fine
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
