I may just come with you
And I may live regret
It doesn't make a difference
If it hasn't happened yet
Leave it to the funny haze
That I've been living in
Past the next ovation
And always closing in

Wake up
Make it all the best and all the better
Wake up
Make it all the best and all the better

I could make a difference
In what it is I do
I could make a little nest
And rest inside of you
I have all the answers
And I can make you see
Walk around like Jesus
When the elephant is right in front of me

Wake up
Make it all the best and all the better
Wake up
Make it all the best and all the better
