You lay down by my side
And I can hear you breathing
You don't know that I know
You're gonna wait until I fall asleep
So I don't have to see,
See you walk away
Beg you to stay

Well baby just lie to me
Let's make this easy
Let my heart think that you'll come home
And you're not gonna leave
Lie to me

Let my heart believe that you won't stay gone
Baby stretch the truth
Convince me there's still me and you
Maybe he won't notice
Maybe he won't care
That you're gone

Baby just lie to me
Let's make this easy
Let my heart think that you'll come home
And you're not gonna leave
Lie to me

Now my heart knows
From tonight on it'll be alone
That you ain't ever comin' back
White lie saves a heart attack
