Don't look away
An innocent face
Cries, and searches for some comfort
Love will provide
What fate has denied
All they ask is simply someone
~£??
With arms that reach
And words that teach
We'll be their strength
In times of need
~£??
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Who will dry their tears
And lift them up
If they should fall
Aren't they all our children after all

Nick:~£??
Who will be there
To show them loving care
They are this world's living treasure
The heart of a child
Is born to wear a smile
And feel joyful without measure
~£??
With arms that reach
And words that teach
We'll be their strength
In times of need
We'll hold their hearts
In loving hands

Help them believe
IN LOVE AGAIN

~£??
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams

Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Aren't they all our children after all

JOSH:

And as they grow
They will always know
That love will ease their troubled road

DION:

And you and I
Are their wings
To help them fly
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Aren't they all our children after all
Aren't they all our children after all
