

Josh Groban"Aren't They All Our Children"

Visit "Aren't They All Our Children" on MotoLyrics.com

Josh:

Don't look away
An innocent face
Cries, and searches for some comfort

Yolanda:

Love will provide
What fate has denied
All they ask is simply someone

Josh:@

With arms that reach
And words that teach
We'll be their strength
In times of need

Children:

Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world

Both:

Aren't they all our children after all
Who will dry their tears
And lift them up
If they should fall

Aren't they all our children after all

Nick:@

Who will be there
To show them loving care
They are this world's living treasure
The heart of a child
Is born to wear a smile
And feel joyful without measure

Enrique:@

With arms that reach
And words that teach
We'll be their strength
In times of need

Dion:

We'll hold their hearts
In loving hands
Help them believe
Give them a chance

Both:@

Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Aren't they all our children after all
Josh:
And as they grow
They will always know
That love will ease their troubled road
Nick:
their troubled road
Dion:
And you and I
Are their wings
To help them fly
Both:@
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Every boy and girl
Should dance on dreams
Around this world
Aren't they all our children after all
Children:
Aren't they all our children after all
Dion and Josh:
Aren't they all our children after all

Visit Josh Groban page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.