Over mountains and sky blue seas
On great circles will you watch for me
The sweetest feeling I've got inside
I just can't wait to get lost in your eyes
And all these words that you meant to say
Held in silence day after day
Words of kindness than our poor hearts crave
Please don't keep them
Hidden Away
Sing it out so I can finally breathe
And I can take in all the same
Holding out for something i believe in
All I really need today
I want to free your heart
I want to see your heart
Please don't keep your heart
Hidden Away
You're a wonder, how bright you shine
A flickering candle in a short lifetime
A secret dreamer that never shows
If no one sees you then nobody knows
And all these words you were meant to say

Held in silence day after day

Words of kindness that our poor hearts crave

Please don't keep them

Hidden Away

Sing it out so I can finally breathe

And I can take in all the same

Reaching out for someone I believe in

All I really need today

I want to feel your love

Will you reveal your love

Please don't keep your love

Hidden Away

I want to free your heart

I want to see your heart

Please don't keep your heart

Hidden Away
