I watched the morning dawn upon your skin
A splinter in the light
It caught and frayed the very heart of us
It's been hiding there inside for all this time

How a sure thing winds up just like this Clockwork silence only knows

And it's no one's fault
There's no black and white
Only you and me
On this endless night

And as the hours run away
With another life
Oh, darling, can't you see?
It's now or never
It's now or never

Sweeping actions still at 3 AM
We're trying far too hard
The tattered thought balloons above our heads
Sinking in the weight of all we need to say

Why's and what if's have since long played out
Left us short on happy endings

And it's no one's fault
There's no black and white
Only you and me
On this endless night

And as the hours run away
With another life
Oh, darling, can't you see?
It's now or never
It's now or never

It's now or never
It's now or never
You know that there's so much more

And it's no one's fault
There's no black and white
Only you and me
On our final night

And as the hours run away
With another life
Oh, darling, can't you see?
It's now or never
It's now or never
