Lately I've been hearing the strangest things
And people say they've seen you around
I hear them gossiping
And tell me things that I don't want to believe
See I'm a little confused, A lot to lose
You see I don't go on in love when your being used

So tell me whats the deal
Is it something maybe you should just reveal to me
You're losing all my trust, oh
Don't think you'll ever get it back because

If this is love, I had enough
Don't wanna play no more
Acting my part, breaking my heart
Slap in my face
There goes the trust, left in the dust
Throw it away
All you need to know is that I've enough
If this is love, If this is love, oh no no no

Now I can see there's a lesson here to be learned
They say that love is a beautiful thing
And turn your back, she starts a fire
And you might get burned
Lets take a minute and lets talk about what I heard
See I'm a little confused, a lot to lose
You see I never would have guessed that I was being used

You played me for a fool
Now your acting like you didn't know the rules baby
Caught in your own treachery

Don't think you'll ever get the best of me

If this is love, I had enough
Don't wanna play no more
Acting my part, breaking my heart
Slap in my face
There goes the trust, back in the dust
Throw it away

All you need to know is that I've enough
If this is love

Don't try to paint the picture like you're innocent
Cause you won't convince me, there's no fire
I see smoke, enough to choke a half a dozen guys
So this should come as no surprise

If this is love, I had enough
Don't wanna play no more
Acting my part, breaking my heart
Slap in my face
There goes the trust, left in the dust
Throw it away
All you need to know is that I've enough
If this is love

If this is love, I had enough
Don't wanna play no more
Acting my part, breaking my heart
Slap in my face
There goes the trust, left in the dust
Throw it away
All you need to know is that I've enough
If this is love, If this is love
