"Fallin In Love With You"

I've been hiding around the corner
Throwing signals in the wind
I got something, I know you want it
I keep it simply what you need
Don't deny me the right to have it
You surprise me with the things you do
Oh baby, I'll be, I'll be around the corner now
So afraid to talk to you

Say what you need
I'll be down on my knees
Crying until you try

You make it hard, hard
To stop from falling in love with you
You make it hard, whoa
To stop from falling in love with you

I've been writing you a letter
With an answer for you to choose
Second chances don't come too easy, baby
This ain't a game you wanna lose

Say what you need
I'll be down on my knees
Crying until you try

You make it hard, hard
To stop from falling in love with you
You make it hard, hard
To stop from falling in love with you

Sometimes, at night I drift into a dream of you
And I'd like to find the dreams inside could come to life
When we glide into a world of perfect
Glide into a world of perfect
Glide into a world of perfect love

Come out
Oh, I've been watching you, baby, and I love the things you do

You make it hard, hard
To stop from falling in love with you
You make it hard, whoa
To stop from falling in love with you, now

You make me so hard, now
You make it so hard

You make it hard, hard
To stop from falling in love with you
I'm falling in love with you
I'm falling in love with you
Baby, I'm falling in love with you
I'm falling in love with you
I'm falling in love with you
Falling in love with you, baby
Come on, now, whoo
Baby
Babe, play with my heart, stop playing with my heart...
