

Josh Kelley "Justice"

Visit "Justice" on MotoLyrics.com

Justice will be served and deserved

Life is a funny, tiny game of pictures and pretty words
Broken up and tremped down to tiny bits of dust
Like a letter of love or a scar to a sports car

Justice will be served and deserved

You're so crazy, now come back as you're lazy
Take some time to step outside the lines
Oh, where did you go? Hope you don't forget your coat
You could catch a cold just being alone

Justice will be served and deserved
Justice will be served and deserved

Oh, I got some of your friends, they all make a real big mess
I could probably scream louder if I had a bigger chest

Start of every heartbeat is how hard you hit the drum
But I've never had fun dancing alone
Oh, I've never had fun dancing alone

Justice will be served and deserved
Justice will be served and deserved

Problem with the sunshine, you can see between the lines
Life doesn't always look the way you hope
Here I am on the phone wishing I could shoot the shit
But it appears I really do have to go
Hey man, I really do have to go

Justice will be served and deserved
Justice will be served and deserved
Justice will be served and deserved

Visit Josh Kelley page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

