Thunder, hard rain, I'm lonely
I know you're lonely too
Late night, thinking I need you
I know you need me too

So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby, hey hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby

When I'm touching you
Flawless, undressed, I'm nervous
I know you're nervous too
Motion, no rules, I'm learning
I know you're learning too

So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby

When I get the urge
I'll give the love that you deserve
You're really something, baby, hey, hey, hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby

Speak to me, woman, I got to hear you calling
And sing so I know what you're looking for
I might not give you what you want, little darling
But you better believe, I'm sure
Sure gonna give you what you need

So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby, hey hey

And when I get the urge
I'll bring the love that you deserve
'Cause you're really something baby, hey hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something baby, hey, hey

Wanting you feels so right, feels so nice
