I've been waiting for the longest time I want you to come back Maybe if the sun would shine It'd bring my happy back

In the dark So tired of waking up and its dark So tired of being stuck on my own here Norway is cold dear

And here comes June The sun is gonna shine in June The doctor says I'll feel better soon Fills my vitamin D pills He hands me the big bill

Cause I've been waiting for the longest time I want you to come back Maybe if the sun would shine You'd bring my happy back

I'm gonna stay on this mountain high Til you come running back Don't leave me hangin' out on that line I want you to come back I want you to come back

I miss my serotonin And my days are goin' nowhere fast The language is so foreign And I can never understand Understand

Come back Come back

Come back Come back

Yeah cause I've been waiting for the longest time I want you to come back Maybe if the sun would shine You'd bring my happy back

I'm gonna stay on this mountain high Til you come running back Don't leave me hanging out on that line I want you to come back Yeah

Waiting for the longest time Waiting for the longest time I want you to come back
