Home late from work, and Im feeling so out
Theres never a minute a' rest
You have the kids and youre feeling the same way
There's always time for the kids

I scream it all just to lie on the table
...is putting the babies to sleep
Grab my guitar, and strum on a few chords
Write down whats in my head

Now that were getting older
Somehows a grey in our hair
But look for things to remember
That there is life, out there
Right out there, right out there

Call it on skype, what am I about to look for
A place in the States
Brooklyn is nice, but it's so damn expensive
Stay right here in Spain

Now that were getting older
Somehows a grey in our hair
But look for the things to remember
That there is life, out there
Right out there, right out there

Our love will grow strong, our love will grow strong
Our love will grow strong, our love will grow

Tuesday well meet at the Indian Restaurant
Its like 5 years ago
Talk of the kids and the morning savings
Places wed like to go

Now that were getting older
Somehows a grey in our hair
But look for the things to remember
That there is life, out there
Right out there, right out there

Oh, its not like Ive been on the take
Shes never one to hesitate

Our love will grow strong, our love will grow strong
Our love will grow strong, our love will grow
Our love will grow strong, our love will grow strong
Our love will grow strong, our love will grow.
