Another day at the races
You wake up with your feet on the ground
Keep alive all your senses
And there's no more wasting your life
Yeah, there's no more wasting your life

I know [Incomprehensible] faces
Passing through another four house town
Don't know they'll speak the language
And there's no more wasting the time
Yeah, there's no more wasting the life

And if we take the path that leads by the river bank
The mountains, they would turn into stairs
Think about all those who have come before
It's the only way that you're gonna learn
It's the only way that you're gonna learn

Here we have a bed 'n' breakfast
We go to sleep with our [Incomprehensible]
We still wear the smilin' faces
It's another day, potato and wine
It's another day, potato and wine

And if we take the path that leads by the river bank
The mountains, they would turn into stairs
Think about all those who have come before
It's the only way that you're gonna learn
It's the only way that you're gonna learn
