You could leave it up to destiny
It was meant to be inevitably
All it really means is certainly
It wasn't your fault
And you won't take the blame

I knew a girl who's hair shined like the sun
Her conscience was crystal clear before this life'd begun
I never knew no one like that who had fun
It's not her fault

Chorus:
I never live the way I want to
Still it's who I am
Never been up front with you
Does that make me not a man?
I never live the way I want to
Still it's who I am

Spend all of my days lost in fantasies
Pretty dreams of what could be, you and me
It's pretty clear to me that dreams are only dreams
And what will be will never be when only I see

(Solo fill)

Repeat Chorus
