Taking over, assisting with my revelation.
Empty spaces, as if it was an invitation.
Your invasion, exceeding every expectation.
Now I feed from the many mouths of your persuasion,

Resurrection, infection, as I fade away.
Theres no fear, there is nothing left to make me stay.
Fitting in my new skin, just tell me what to do.
I'm defined, I am blind, I am a part of you.

Big black bomb, attack.
Break down resist us, fight back.

Now I am a part of you, attack.
Now I am a part of you, resist us, fight back.
