Every time I go to hold you in my arms I look over at you and I see your eyes are shut But, I don't need to worry because I know just what your thinking what I'm thinking

And I love the way you wear your hair they way blows everywhere it's in my face it's on my heart it's just another wonderful part of this beautiful creation oh this wonderful being
It steals my heart again and again just to see the way you are

I just wish that you were here I wanna hold you oh so near We could fly across the clear blue sky oh, it would be wonderful just you and I

And I love the way you wear your hair they way blows
everywhere it's in my face it's on my heart it's just another wonderful part of this beautiful creation oh this
wonderful being

It steals my heart again and again just to see the way
you are

It's killing me to be away from you. It's killing me to wish for you this much. It's killing me oh, oh, oh. It's killing me oh, oh, oh, oh.

And I love the way you wear your hair they way blows
everywhere it's in my face it's on my heart it's just another wonderful part of this
