GRATITUDE

I hope you find what you're looking for I hope you get all you desire I hope that all your dreams come true I hope they all lift you higher Now all the visions I once had of the way our lives would be I can offer up at last to the beauty that I see So please forgive me, please forgive me for thinking that I ever had the secret to your holy mystery please forgive me, please forgive me for thinking that I ever had
the secret to your holy mystery
And can you feel my gratitude can you feel my gratitude
can you feel my gratitude
can you feel my gratitude for you
feel it running deep feel it running true
It's such an esoteric work the way you finally said goodbye took so long for me to hear through the noise of wondering why 'til I had no place left to run and I finally had to face what was really only me imagining my fall from grace
for thinking that I ever had the secret to your holy mystery
mystery

feel it running deep
feel my gratitude for you
