Singing the blues again an planet earth
back to beeing human with a broken heart.
Last year we loved like gods.
This year weÁre all at odds.
Three shows a night, IÁm back.
And IÁm tired of this old act.
IÁm over the sad songs so find yourself,
another sad song singer!
IÁm over the loneliness,
IÁm over the pain you put me through.
IÁm over the sad song so find yourself
another sad song singer.
If only this heart of mine
could believe this song IÁm singing is true!
So find yourself another sad song singer.
IÁm getting over you.
Thought IÁd never play these songs again.
Funny I remeber every one!
Thought I made it out of here.
Thought I left this place for good.
Three shows a night IÁm back.
IÁm tied of this odl act.
IÁm over the sad songs so find yourself,
another sad song singer!
IÁm over the loneliness,
IÁm over the pain you put me through.
IÁm over the sad song so find yourself
another sad song singer.
