Nothing ever lasts for long
I can't believe the time is gone
I've tried all I know to say
I can't give up on yesterday

Searching all my life
Finding love to make it right
Loving you I found a way
Take me back to yesterday

And love, learning how to hold the time
And knowing you I've come to find
That even if we let it slip away
It won't be long
Love will remember yesterday

Giving over to the sand
A solid room to hold you in
Promises my love to stay

But I won't give up yesterday

And stretching out across the miles
Horses running in the wild
Beckon the moon to keep you safe
Don't give up on yesterday

And love learning how to hold the time
And knowing you I've come to find
That even if we let it slip away
It won't be long
And I know it won't be

Nothing ever lasts for long
I can't believe the time is gone
I've tried all I know to say
Love will remember yesterday
I can't give up
