See a mountain, see an ocean
See the years that bring rock and tide close together
Settle down, I said to myself
Things that come with time
Will always be better

Everyone gets what they want too fast these days
No one knows the way to make things last

Still, I say:
Hey baby, I'm through waiting
'Cause I need you now, I'll show you how
You can take my hand and save me
Come on, save me

Everyone gets what they want too fast these days
No one knows the way to make things last

Now the moon is in the right place
After years of spinning round the sun
So I'm done with all the times I strained to find a rhyme
Left me blind and busted

Everyone gets what they want too fast these days
No one knows the way to make things last

Still I say:
Hey baby, I'm through waiting
'Cause I need you now, I'll show you how
You can take my hand and save me
Come on, save me

Hey baby, I'm through waiting
'Cause I need you now, I'll show you how
You can take my hand and save me

Hey baby, I'm through waiting
'Cause I need you now, I'll show you how
You can take my hand and save me

Come on, save me

Come on, save me
