some are reaching few are there wandering from a heros chair some are scared to fly so high well this is how we have to try have no envy and no fear have no envy

no fear

brother brother we all see your hiding out so painfully see yourself come out to play a lovers rain will wash away your envy and your fear so have no envy

no fear

when your sister turns to leave only when shes most in need take away the cause of pain by showing her were all the same.

and no fear

every day we try to find we search our hearts and our minds the place we used to call our home cant be found when were alone

no fear
no fear
