We've been waiting,
anticipating your arrival.
Turn the light on,
give us road to ride on help ensure survival
now there's a new day, sing with us a new way
or be left behind.
You say, someday
we'll know where to go, but we don't know
I'm always the last one,
never ready for the fast ones,
well it's time to change

set our sites on a new land
one that's kind of strange
you say, someday
we'll know where to go but we don't know
you say, someday
one that's kind of strange.
