(Verse 1)

So sick of arguing
Tired of fussing fighting
Far from the days when we first fell in love
And I, go put my high heels on now
I'm going out tonight
And I'm wearing the sexy jeans that you like, yeah

I'm too fly to be sitting on the side
While you're doing you like no one else can
Do the things you do when you're gone
I'm so tired of your sorry alibis
Time for me to pack my things and move on

(Chorus)

Cause I'm going out tonight
Cause love is so overrated, overrated
And later I may change my mind but for now
Love's overrated, overrated
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Overrated

(Verse 2)

Soon as i step inside
I'm clearing out the floor
Got all the fellas watching me and my girls
And you don't have to worry
There ain't no need to call
It's okay boy
I'm not your doll anymore

I'm too fly to be sitting on the side
While you're doing you like no one else can
Do the things you do when you're gone
I'm so tired of your sorry alibis

Time for me to pack my things and move on

(Chorus)

Cause I'm going out tonight
Cause love is so overrated, overrated
And later I may change my mind but for now
Love's overrated, overrated
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Overrated

(Bridge)

I used to be the girl so lost in your world
But I'm the same girl that you met
And fell in love with
Didn't really have time to myself
I was looking for love and nothing else
(But it was overrated)

(Chorus)

Cause I'm going out tonight
Cause love is so overrated, overrated
And later I may change my mind but for now
Love's overrated, overrated
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Boy you know it's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so (overrated)
It's so
Overrated
